Antoine Berson dit Chatillon – Merchant from Paris who was born in 1637, the son of Eustache Berson dit Chatillon and Madeleine Pescheur. Arrived at Québec City in 1657. Married in 1663 in the nearby Château-Richer to Marguerite Bélanger (Bellenger). Died after 1665. Being a resident of Château-Richer, he most likely traded furs with First Nations. Many trappers were transporting their furs through the St. Lawrence River and Château-Richer was located on the mighty river. It appears to have been one of the stop-over villages of choice for fur-trappers.

Solomon Francia – Jewish merchant from Bordeaux who was among others who sent ships to North America from about 1683 to 1750. Among these Jewish merchants, one can trace David Gradis, Jacob Peixotto, Jacob Raphël, Gabriel Da Silva, Joseph Da Silva, Samuel Lopes-Dubec, Abraham Gradis, Joseph-Abraham-Henriques Raba, Jean Gomes, Jean Nougues and François Mendes. In 1747, Abraham Francia had sent a ship to Québec City from Bordeaux.

Louis-Simon Fréchet (Frichet) – Merchant in Québec City in 1750 who was associated with the Compagnie des Indes occidentales and the Domaine du Roi. He appears to have been in some form of partnership or had families ties with fellow merchants Louis Bazil, François Havy, Jean Lefebvre, Jean-Étienne Jayat, Jean Tachet (Taché), Sieur Mariette and Du Roy. Féchet was born in 1711 in Québec City, married Louise Constantin. Fréchet died in 1767 in Québec City.

Jean-Louis Frémont (Fromont) – Merchant from Saint-Germain-en-Laye in the Yvelines was born in 1729, son of Charles Fromont and Louise Villot. Arrived in Nouvelle France in 1751, married the same year to Marie Collet (Coclet) in Québec City. Served as a merchant in Québec City from 1751 to 1759. Died in Paris in 1797.
Thomas Frérot – Merchant and notary in Montréal and Trois-Rivières in the 1670s. It appears that most of his business activities were as a notary, not as a merchant. He served as a notary from 1669 to 1678 in Montréal and in 1677 in Trois-Rivières. Also referred to as Thomas Frérot de Lachenest. It is quite conceivable that Thomas Frérot the merchant and Thomas Frérot de Lachenest, the notary were two different individuals who both resided at Nouvelle France within the same time period.

Jacques Froger de la Rigaudière et de l’Éguille – Merchant at the Saintonge region who in the 17th century was sending ships to North America and most likely to Nouvelle-France. He might have been the son or grandson of Alexandre Froger de la Rigaudière of the Fresneaud region of Montelimar in the Drôme region.

Pierre-François Fromage – Merchant in 1677 at Saint-Étienne in the Loire, son of Laurent Fromage and Benoîte de Chazelle. Arrived in Nouvelle France in 1698. Married in 1699 in Québec City with Marguerite Fortin. From 1694 onward he was associated with Hilaire Bourgine and Jean Sébille. Died about 1704.

Jacques Gadois dit Mauger – Merchant who was born in Montréal in 1686. He was also a silversmith. Son of Pierre Gadois and Jeanne Besnard. Married in 1714 to Marie-Madeleine Chorel de Saint-Romain dit d’Orvilliers in Montréal. Resided at Varennes. Died in 1750 at Montréal.

François Gagnon – Merchant in Montréal with the Compagnie des Indes from 1715 to 1750. Said society was involved in part within the fur industry.

Pierre Gaigneur dit Legaigneur – Merchant from La Rochelle in the Charente-Maritime. Born in 1625 at La Rochelle, son of Louis Gaigneur and Marguerite Bodin. In 1654 he married Jeanne Grignon. Arrived in Nouvelle France in 1663. Member of the same family as Antoine Grignon. Gaigneur who was operating as a recruiter of peasants from 1664 to 1678 in the Aunis province. He died in 1692 at La Rochelle.

Guillaume Gaillard (Gauillard) – Merchant in Québec City from 1690-1724. Most likely a relative of Mathieu Gaillard. During the above time period, as many as 38 merchants in the Québec City region appears to have been successful in their trading endeavours with merchants in about 32 port-cities of France.

Mathieu Gaillard – Medical doctor and merchant who was born in 1645 at Ars-en-Ré in the Charente-Maritime, son of Mathieu Gaillard and Marie Jammond. Married in 1676 to Anne Martin at La Rochelle.
Arrived in Nouvelle France in 1686. He was commissioner of the Marine de France in Nouvelle France from 1687. In 1719, Gaillard, son of Mathieu Gaillard, père was trading at Nouvelle-France for the Gaillard family as listed in a document with the title of Mémoire des négociants du Canada. Mathieu Gaillard, père died at La Rochelle after 1706.

Pierre Garbusat – Merchant in Lyon and La Rochelle. In 1658, he sailed for Nouvelle France with Emmanuel Leborgne. In 1689 he was associated with Pierre Martel, a merchant in Québec City.

Isaac Garesché – A leading merchant at Nieulle-sur-Seudre in the Charente-Maritime (Poitou-Charentes). He was born in 1738. Died at Le Gua in 1812. Does not appear to have visited Nouvelle France but was associated with merchant M. Baudoin Delandebardie, the latter from Taillebourg with merchant ships in Newfoundland. Sons and grandsons of Isaac Gareshé, Daniel, Jacques, Daniel Jr., Pierre-Isaac all appear to have been merchants and traders. An exceptional family among the merchants of France within above time period.

Nicolas Gargot de la Rochette – Merchant born in 1619 in La Rochelle in the Aunis, son of Hilaire Gargot and Anne Lardot. Was present in Acadie in 1637, Plaisance in 1650, Québec City in 1662. Died in 1664 at La Rochelle.
Jean Garos – Son – Followed the foot-steps of his father and was present in Nouvelle France in the 1660s and 1670s.

Nicolas Gastineau, sieur Du Plessis – Fur trader and explorer who was born about 1627. He arrived in Nouvelle-France in 1648. In 1650, was sent to Trois-Rivières by the Compagnie des Cent-Associés. In 1663 he married Marie Crevier. Died in 1689 in Québec City.

Jean Gatin – Merchant in Québec City from 1706 to 1729 In partnership in part with Jean Jung. Married Catherine-Elisabeth Lambert. Died prior to 1731.

Jean Gaudon (Gaudion), sieur de La Gaudonnière – Merchant in Montréal in the 1714-1720 time frame. Originated from the Touraine in the Val de Loire. A second Gaudon or perhaps the same Gaudon was Trésorier de la marine in Montréal during same time period.
Pierre Gaultier de Varennes et de La Vérendrye – Explorer, fur trader, merchant and seigneur born in 1685 in Trois-Rivières. Son of René Gaultier de Varennes and Marie Boucher. The latter the daughter of Pierre Boucher, Governor of Trois-Rivières. Died in Montréal in 1749. Much has been written about this famous explorer. What portion of his income was derived from the purchasing and selling of furs, very little as per historian Yves F. Zoltvany.

Guillaume Gauthier (Gautier) de la Chesnaye – Merchant, fur trader in Québec City. Born in Paris in 1622, son of Philippe Gauthier and Marie Pichon. Arrived in Nouvelle France in 1636. In 1648, he married Marie-Esther de Limbourg in Québec City. Was active within the trading sector in the 1640-1650s. Died in 1657 at Québec City.

Jean-Élie Gauthier (Gaultier) – Master tanner who was born in 1700 at Melle in the Deux-Sèvres, son of Laurent Gaultier (Gauthier) and Élisabeth Delavault. Arrived in Nouvelle France in 1726. Married in 1727 in Québec City to Marie-Suzanne Hallé. Died after 1759, perhaps in France.

Jean-Jacques Gauthier – Merchant in Québec City and Montauban in the Tarn-et-Garonne and was present in Nouvelle France in the 1740s and perhaps in the 1750s.
Pierre de La Lande Gayon II – Merchant in the 1690s in Québec City. Was considered to be a member of merchants described as being successful in the importing and exporting of goods in Nouvelle France. During the tenure of Sieur de Frontenac as governor of Nouvelle-France, it does appear that merchants in some of the 32 port-cities of France with those merchants in Québec City were engaged in fairly constant trades during the trading months between the two continents. In 1743 Jacques de Lalande-Gayon was associated with other merchants at the poste Gros Mecatina in the Mingan region. The latter La Lande Gayon most likely a brother of Pierre.
